

Positive Activities Menu for Confinement Days

based on Martin Seligman's "PERMA" well-being model

If you feel sad...

P

Create or cultivate opportunities to experience Positive Emotions:

- Serenity: take time to meditate/pray, learn to rest, take care of yourself (beauty care, massage...), light candles, listen to your favorite music...
  - Gratitude: make a list every day of the things for which you are grateful, enjoy the simple pleasures of the day.
  - Fun: find and share opportunities to laugh, watch movies and series, play board or strategy games...
  - Admiration or inspiration: go for a walk or take part in nature activities...
  - Curiosity: rediscover your region, get interested in something new...

If you are bored...

E

Engage in activities to acquire or develop your skills:

- Sport: walking, running, yoga, muscle strengthening, flexibility...
  - Culture: learn a new language, visit virtual exhibitions, listen to podcasts...
  - Art: watercolor, drawing, singing, photography, sewing, calligraphy, composition...
  - Reading: novels, personal development/philosophy/positive psychology books, biographies, literary classics, magazines...
  - Writing: novels, blogs, scientific articles, diaries, haikus, slogans...
  - Cooking: balanced dishes, your own bread, pastries...
  - Garden: sowing seeds, take care of your plants, harvest...
  - Computer science: create a website, train yourself to use a new software...

If you feel lonely...

R

Maintain, renew or begin rewarding Relationships:

- Keep watch: Contact or write to your loved ones to find out how they are doing.
  - Maintain: Organize virtual events (cocktails, coffee, birthday parties).
  - Deepen: get together as a family for activities (meals, games, walks, sports).
  - Develop: create new relationships via social networks.
  - Reconnect: get back in touch with people you've lost touch with.
  - Extend: spend time with your pets.

If you feel useless...

M

Find Meaning and joy in making yourself useful to others or to the planet:

- Taking care: give time, listen or bring support to people in difficulty.
  - Get involved: commit or organize solidarity or volunteer activities.
  - Share: create and host support activities based on your skills (virtual workshops, podcast recording, free courses...).
  - Protect: find or implement solutions to live in a more local or ecological way.

If you lose self-confidence...

A

Create opportunities for yourself to experience success, to Accomplish yourself:

- Bucket list: do all the activities you've always put off.
  - Update: Sort and tidy up your life, your home, your computer...
  - Quest: Take up a sporting or professional challenge, take part in a contest.
  - Certification: start, continue or complete a training program.
  - Adventure: monitor the challenges you face every day (adapting, making decisions in uncertainty, etc.).
